Allowable Subject Matter

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: The prior art does not teach the combination of limitations recited in claim 1. Specifically, the prior art does not teach controlled rendering of a prescription via use of four digital certificates issued by the four different parties recited, each of the certificates attesting to the different items recited in claim 1, wherein the first and fourth certificates are associated with the rendering application, the second certificate with the prescription, and the third certificate with the physician. All other claims are dependent on claim 1.
